Prince Levan and Princess Bins Cirlton Dadiani

There is attached for your information and any action ou description appropriate a summary of information which has been furnished. The lunground by Levan and Edna Budiani, and Irinell Levan and Princess has applied Dadiani, of Salheno Fara, Thompson Edge, New York.

Levan Dadiani was form in Eautols, Georgia, a momber of the ruling family of one of the five Guorgian kingdoms, all of which were over-run by the Bolsheviks after World War I. Sr. Eadlani entered the United States in 1935, and became an American citizen at Goshan, New York on June 15, 1945. Mr. Dadiani, who claims to be violently anti-Communist, has offered to utilize his knowledge of the old kingdom of Georgia for the benefit of the United States, and, with certain equally anti-Coviet friends, set up a resistance movement. He has also furnished considerable data in regard to certain contacts of his in Europe.

The attached memorandum contains all the information furnished to this Bureau by Endiani and his wife, and he would appreciate a contact if his services can be of value. If you no desire, arrangements may be made through our New York Field Division to interview the Dadianis.
